BED & BREAKFASTS & GUEST SUITES

Savor all the charm of a cozy bungalow with all the amenities of a prime hotel ... and a delicious breakfast! Our B&Bs and guest suites offer private rooms and bathrooms, shared relaxing spaces that are hard to beat, and unique vintage atmospheres with a laidback vibe.

How does a colonial farmhouse sitting on 80 acres sound? A Victorian home built in the 1800s? A historic family dwelling in the heart of downtown? The possibilities are endless, but one thing is certain: Staying in one of our oh-so-original B&Bs or guest suites is an unforgettable way to experience Brown County.

Art

Locally made. Handcrafted for you.

Brown County art is ...

Historic, drawing artists for more than a century to this peaceful sanctuary brimming with breathtaking scenery and continuing to inspire artisans to this day.

Alive with a thriving Art Colony of more than 150 active artists as well as art studios, galleries, classes, public art, art walks, and more.

Everywhere you look as our artists paint canvas, blow glass, throw clay, tool leather, weld metal, weave cloth, and carve native Indiana limestone, just to name a few.

Accessible and meant to be experienced firsthand, whether you marvel at the artists while they work or try your hand at creating a masterpiece yourself.

Handcrafted art is on every corner ... down every backroad ... and inspired by every breathtaking vista in Brown County. Because art is more than something to admire here. It's a way of life, and it always has been.

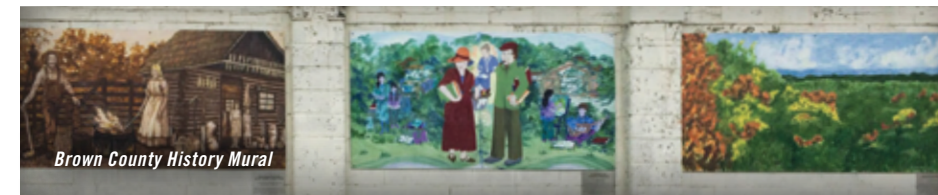

Feeling inspired? Explore all things "art" at BrownCounty.com/Do!

PUBLIC ART

You'll find inspiring public art collections throughout Nashville—everywhere from the courthouse, Town Hall, and the public library to local favorites like Artists Colony Inn, Hobnob Corner Restaurant, and Nashville House.

855.812.4453
HoosierHikersCouncil.org/Hitz-Rhodehamel-Nature-Preserve

In 2012, the Hoosier Hikers Council collaborated with The Nature Conservancy to build a three-mile trail that loops around the 484-acre Hitz-Rhodehamel Nature Preserve. This property is a mature oak forest in Brown County with high ridges and steep ravines, blanketed in spring with wildflowers and full of color in the fall. The trail loop hike consists of two long, 200-foot hills, tempered with switchbacks, and a few smaller inclines for good measure.

HOOSIER NATIONAL FOREST

812.275.5987
fs.USDA.gov/Hoosier

This magnificent forest is more than a Hoosier landmark; it’s a national treasure. With over 200,000 acres of lush, mature forest spanning nine counties and 27 well-maintained trails to explore, Hoosier National Forest features outdoor adventure for nearly everyone. Its tranquil woods are home to countless species of wildlife and rare ecosystems. You can reconnect with nature by backpacking Hickory Ridge Trail, fishing on a river, mountain biking on Nebo Ridge, or nesting into a campsite.

KNOBSTONE HIKING TRAIL

MONROE, BROWN, JACKSON, WASHINGTON, SCOTT, AND CLARK COUNTIES
KnobstoneHikingTrail.org

This beautifully scenic trail system is located between Indianapolis and Louisville, with trailheads located throughout. It consists of four sections: the Tecumseh Trail and Hoosier National Forest, which run through Brown County; the Pioneer Trail; and the Knobstone Trail—Indiana’s longest natural-surface footpath. This 160-mile trail is ideal for day hikes, backpack camping, and anyone looking for an excellent opportunity to get in shape through the rugged hills and scenic vistas!

LAURA HARE NATURE PRESERVE AT DOWNEY HILL VALLEY BRANCH ROAD

812.336.5382
SycamoreLandTrust.org/Explore

Hike through undisturbed forestland at the Laura Hare Nature Preserve. This incredible forest has almost 600 acres of protected habitats, home to a variety of songbirds, raptors, and box turtles. The preserve features a picturesque 6-mile trail that strategically weaves past mossy wells, scenic ponds, and non-native rock formations brought to the region by glaciers. The Laura Hare Nature Preserve welcomes hikers of all levels of experience; even your furry, four-legged family friends!

LINCOLN PINCH PARK

154 SOUTH JOHNSON STREET
812.988.5526

Located at the corner of Johnson Street and Washington Street in beautiful Downtown Nashville, commonly known as Johnson Street Park. Open air park available year round with picnic tables and bench seating. Rest, relax, or enjoy a picnic lunch.

MOUNTAIN TEA STATE FOREST

PUMPKIN RIDGE ROAD
on.IN.gov/MountainTea

Although no permanently established recreation areas are present, there are still several recreational opportunities. Hunting is permitted on State Forest property, and this area also offers opportunities for off-trail hiking, mushrooming, and wildlife viewing.

POLLY’S BARK PARK AT JEFFERSON STREET PARK

258 SOUTH JEFFERSON STREET
Facebook.com/PollysBarkPark

105 WILLOW STREET, NASHVILLE
812.988.5522
BCParksRec.com/Salt-Creek-Trail

Stroll to and from downtown Nashville with ease on the Salt Creek Trail. The path is the Village of Nashville’s first paved trail and is great for casual walking, running, or biking! While the path is only three-fourths of a mile long, it is lined with scenery so beautiful, you’ll stop every few steps to soak it all in. No matter if you’re three or 83, you’ll love the short, but oh-so-sweet, Salt Creek Trail.

STONE HEAD NATURE PRESERVE

4645 WEST BELLSVILLE PIKE
812.340.5077
AllTrails.com/Trail/US/Indiana/Stone-Head-Nature-Preserve

Stone Head Nature Preserve boasts 5.4 miles of trails through wetlands, meadows, and forested ridges interspersed with deep ravines. The Preserve is open to the public 365 days a year from dawn to dusk. A visit to Stone Head Nature Preserve will help you re-focus, with a clearer lens, on life’s more meaningful values and that you may find within yourself a deeper appreciation of the wonder of it all.

TECUMSEH TRAIL

MORGAN AND BROWN COUNTIES
855.812.4453
HoosierHikersCouncil.org/Tecumseh-Trail

You won’t need the same courage and resolve that distinguishes the career of Shawnee Chief Tecumseh when you hike the 42-mile trail that bears his name. But you will need to climb ridge tops, cross several creeks, and wind in and out of ravines and hollows to explore one of the most beautiful and remote hardwood forests in the Midwest. Built by hikers, for hikers, Tecumseh is the signature trail of Brown County. Visit the website to learn more and find a trailhead.

With miles and miles of flowing trails, scenic vistas, and amazing terrain, Brown County has become a world-class mountain biking destination.

TREVLAC BLUFFS NATURE PRESERVE

IN-45
812.336.5382
SycamoreLandTrust.org/Explore
Trevlac Bluffs Nature Preserve is named for its towering 200-foot bluff over Beanblossom Creek that features a rare stand of native eastern hemlock trees, found naturally in only about two dozen places in Indiana. The preserve also protects over 100 acres of forested wetlands in the floodplain of Beanblossom Creek and over a mile of the creek itself, which is the main input for Lake Lemon about a mile and a half downstream. This preserve is one of three critical forest blocks in the Midwest for breeding migratory songbirds.

YELLOWWOOD STATE FOREST

772 SOUTH YELLOWWOOD ROAD
812.988.7945
on.IN.gov/YellowwoodSF
Hikers of every age always feel welcome at Yellowwood State Forest, located seven miles west of Nashville, just north of State Road 46. The forest's 23,326 acres offer many recreation opportunities for people of all ages and skill levels. With three pristine lakes, hiking, horse trails, rowboat & kayak rentals, abundant wildlife, and primitive overnight campsites, Yellowwood has everything to keep you busy! Hikers may use designated hiking and horse trails.

Lake Lemon offers visitors a more serene experience. This 1,650-acre fresh water lake, located in northwest Brown County, is one of Indiana's top bass fisheries. For the best view of the lake, hike the loop that surrounds it. The trail can be accessed from Riddle Point Park, which also has a beach, shelter house, and bathhouse. If you're looking to get away from it all, a great place to relax and unwind is Lake Lemon.
